10. Nodal Centres at the time of registration

Nodal Centres are functioning in all affiliated colleges in connection with the online registration to B.Ed programme 2022. In each nodal centre a nodal officer has been appointed and the students can avail their assistance for registration.

11. Trial Allotment

A trial allotment will be conducted to give the applicants an idea about the chances of getting allotment to a programme and college based on the options, merit and reservation rules. After the trial allotment candidates will be allowed to verify and rearrange their options. The trial allotment does not guarantee the candidate to get allotment in a college or programme of his/her choice, since the ranks may vary in actual allotment subject to the rearrangement of options by applicants after the trial allotment. No new programme of college can be added at any stage of the allotment process.

11.1. Allotment

The allotments will be made from among the list of colleges and programmes opted by the students.

There will be two main allotments and additional allotments if necessary.

11.1.1 .First Allotment

The first allotment will be published on the scheduled date. On receiving allotment to a particular option, all other lower options will automatically be cancelled and only the higher options will prevail until deletion by the candidate.

11.1.2 All candidates received allotment should remit mandatory fee to claim their allotment in E-chalan /online payment.
